ORDER FOR CONFERENCE
PURSUANT TO RULE 16

18 Civ. 5310 (GWG)

GABRIEL W. GORENSTEIN
UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE

This action is scheduled for an initial case management conference in accordance with Fed. R. Civ. P. 16(a), on Thursday, September 13, 2018, at 10:15 a.m. in Courtroom 6-B, United States Courthouse, 500 Pearl Street, New York, New York. Counsel for all parties must appear at this conference and should arrive prior to the scheduled time so that the conference may begin on time.*

Upon receipt of this order, each counsel is directed to confirm with all other counsel that each party to this proceeding has received a copy of this order. In addition, please note that the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure require the parties to confer before this conference to discuss the matters set forth in Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(f). Additionally, the parties' attention is directed to the initial disclosure requirements of Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(1).

* If counsel for a party is located more than 20 miles from the Courthouse, counsel may file a letter seeking to appear by telephone. Before doing so, however, counsel must consult with all other counsel to determine if any other counsel seek to appear by telephone. If so, all such counsel should make a joint application to appear by telephone. If the Court issues an order permitting a party or parties to appear by telephone, (1) a call should be made to (212) 805-4260 at the time of the conference with all parties appearing by telephone on the line (or counsel may call Chambers at that time to provide a toll-free dial-in number and access code); (2) all counsel who intend to speak during the call must use a landline and must not use a speakerphone; and (3) the "Proposed Scheduling Order" required by this Order must be submitted the day before the conference.

At the initial case management conference, the parties must be prepared to discuss the subjects set forth in subdivisions (b) and (c) of Rule 16. To fulfill the requirement of Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(f) that the parties submit a written proposed discovery plan, the parties shall jointly submit to the Court, either at or prior to the initial case management conference, a written "Proposed Scheduling Order." If submitted in advance of the conference, the "Proposed Scheduling Order" shall be filed on ECF either as an attachment to a letter or by itself. The "Proposed Scheduling Order" shall contain the case caption and the following information:

1. The appearances for the parties; including the individual attorney's name, the law firm's name, the party(ies) represented, business address, and business phone number;
2. a concise statement of the issues as they then appear;
3. a proposed schedule including:
 - a. dates for initial document requests and initial interrogatories;
 - b. a deadline for joining parties or filing amended pleadings;
 - c. the names of non-expert witnesses expected at this time to be deposed (if known) and either specific dates or a timetable for when depositions will take place;
 - d. a date by which all non-expert discovery shall be completed;
 - e. in the event either side contemplates calling an expert witness, (i) anticipated fields of expert testimony; (ii) dates by which the disclosures of the identities and reports of experts required by Rule 26(a)(2) will be made; and (iii) the date by which depositions of experts shall be completed;
 - f. the date by which pretrial motions, if any, will be filed; or, if no such motions are contemplated, the date by which the parties will submit a joint pretrial order in accordance with procedures of the judge before whom the trial will be conducted;* and

4. a statement of any limitations to be placed on discovery, including any protective or confidentiality orders;
5. a brief description of any discovery issues, including issues regarding the production of electronically stored information, as to which the parties have been unable to reach an agreement;
6. anticipated length of trial and whether, and by whom, a jury has been requested;
7. (a) an approximate date or stage of the case when the parties believe it would be most helpful to engage in settlement discussions with the assistance of a mediator and whether the parties plan to engage a private mediator;
8. The following paragraph reproduced verbatim:

“All discovery (including requests for admission and any applications to the Court with respect to the conduct of discovery) must be initiated in time to be concluded by the deadline for all discovery. Any application for an extension of the time limitations herein must be made as soon as the cause for the extension becomes known to the party making the application and in accordance with this Court’s Individual Practices. Any application not in compliance with this paragraph will be denied. To the extent a party expects to produce electronically stored information, the parties shall promptly discuss the protocols for the search and review of such material.”
9. A signature line for the undersigned.

To the extent the parties disagree on the dates or other terms of the proposed schedule, such disagreement may be noted in the document.

As explained in the Court’s Individual Practices (posted at: www.nysd.uscourts.gov/judge/Gorenstein), any application for a change in the date of the conference must be made in a writing sent to the undersigned or filed on ECF promptly upon

*This paragraph shall also include the following statement, either in text or in a footnote: “The parties shall follow the rules of the assigned District Judge with respect to any pre-motion conference, filing or other requirements for dispositive motions.”

learning of the need for the change in date. Prior to making such a request for an adjournment, the party so requesting should contact the Deputy Clerk ((212) 805-4260) to determine alternative dates on which the Court is available for a rescheduled court appearance. The party must then make an application for an adjournment by letter that includes (1) a statement as to all other parties' positions on the proposed change in date and (2) a proposal for an alternative date for the conference (as provided by the Deputy Clerk) for which all parties are available.
